THE PROMISE A 'freezing facial' is the way Hollywood stars Demi Moore, Jennifer Aniston and Jessica Alba get their A-list glow. Now available in the UK for the first time, this new treatment painlessly cools the skin to a staggering -292°F, kick-starting the body's natural repair processes and boosting the production of collagen for brighter, plumper skin.

OUR TESTER SAID 'I was very excited to have a Hollywood treatment that hasn't hit the mainstream yet! After a deep cleanse and mild glycolic peel, a stream of liquid nitrogen vapours was directed over my face. It didn't hurt at all, and actually felt super-relaxing. Not only did it plump out my frown and laughter lines but I looked like I'd had eight hours' sleep and my skin was still radiant two days after the treatment.'
